PRAYER AT TEN

As we think about how the disciples experienced lots of highs and lows before, during and after Easter. We think of our own highs and lows at this time. Confusion about what is going on in the world, with conflict, violent acts, strange weather, being unsettled in mind and spirit. But we know there is always hope, hope for a better world, hope for a better understanding between people, and for spiritual comfort because You have promised us these things in Your loving spirit and in that we trust. Amen

Please remember Doug and their family in your prayers, and the community of Fleetwood Methodist Church.
